About " Adventures of Tom Sawyer":

Tom Sawyer and his friend, Huckleberry Finn (Huck Finn), are first-class trouble makers, which many of you will probably be able to relate to - especially if you've ever just wanted to just walk out of a boring math class and go skateboarding, or in Tom's case, go rafting down the Mississippi River and pretend to be a pirate. Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn are free spirits whose sense of adventure is more important than things like bathing or going to school.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain is a prequel to Adventures of Huckleberry Finn & is one of the Great American Novels. It is about a young boy growing up along the Mississippi River. The story is set in the fictional town of St. Petersburg, inspired by Hannibal, Missouri, where Twain lived.
