We know that research has shown time and time again, the importance of art in the educational process. Children who are exposed to music and art instruction do much better in reading, math and science. They develop greater curiosity about, understanding of, and appreciation for, the subject matter being taught. We know that providing arts in education stimulates better behavior, personal esteem and socialization skills. The activities in this book are not intended to replace core instruction, but rather to enhance and extend the concepts taught within your current practice. These patterns may be used not only in the classroom, but as independent practice as they are applicable to both school and home learning. In this volume students will learn how to draw in a step-by-step manner which will build both confidence and ability in your young artists. Volume, "Story Book Characters", features twelve easy to draw favorites: Cat in the Hat, Winnie-the-Pooh, Curious George, Clifford, Madeline, Cookie Monster, Arthur, Wimpy Kid, Max, Charlie Brown, Corduroy, Frog & Toad. In this e-book you will also find literature suggestions, writing prompts, templates, and interesting facts about each character. There are general art extensions, a book cover, and an achievement certificate included as well. It is our sincere hope that your students will experience success in learning to draw and in illustrating their academic works.
