Silver Tide (The Sly Cove Trilogy Book 1) H J Knight

"He just knew it to be a very bad place. A scary place called Hell where there were unceasing fires and lights like that one below. Somewhere you went to but never left. But he couldn't look away from it. He was dipping lower into the water and now he was seeing something else. Something inside the light..."

Seventeen-year-old Dylan Willow does not belong in Sly Cove.

Having moved with his mother and his sister from London to the small Cornish village, he is homesick and angry. Worst of all he begins to experience grim reminders of a devastating fear of the ocean – buried since childhood.

An encounter with a strange, beautiful girl in a cove will change everything, a girl he cannot trust but cannot forget. Soon he is caught in a mystery that will force him to delve into the village's dark and deathly past, to confront his deepest terrors, and ultimately to risk everything in the face of an unspeakable secret.

The first of the Sly Cove trilogy, Silver Tide is a story about love, fear, and the treacherous point where the land meets the water.
