Sunset Park: A Novel Paul Auster

A New York Times Bestseller

From the bestselling author of Invisible and The New York Trilogy comes a new novel set during the 2008 economic collapse. Sunset Park opens with twenty-eight-year-old Miles Heller trashing out foreclosed houses in Florida, the latest stop in his flight across the country. When Miles falls in love with Pilar Sanchez, he finds himself fleeing once again, going back to New York, where his family still lives, and into an abandoned house of young squatters in Sunset Park, Brooklyn. Woven together from various points of view—that of Miles's father, an independent book publisher trying to stay afloat, Miles's mother, a celebrated actress preparing her return to the New York stage, and the various men and women who live in the house—"Auster seems to carry all of humanity inside him" (Jan Stuart, The Boston Globe).

Deborah Wilkerson:

As a pupil exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Sunset Park: A Novel can make you truly feel more interested to read.
