The Planet of War

After a miraculous journey through myriad miles of interplanetary space, Hector Blake, an Earth-man, finds himself lost upon Mars – a savage, untamed world, lighted by the fiery glow of its two whirling moons. Hazarding his life to win the love of the planet's most beautiful woman, he must survive the attacks of ferocious beasts and defeat ruthless foemen, before finally daring to challenge the awesome power of the terrifying alien creature that would reduce all Mars to abject slavery.

All who have thrilled to Edgar Rice Burroughs' famous tales of adventure and romance are sure to find in Under Crimson Moons all the swordplay and wonder they could wish for.

Under Crimson Moons is a novel of 65,000 words.
