Cat's in the Cradle: A Pamela Whitherspoon Pet Detective Mystery Dakota McGraw

What does a mansion; a prize show cat and a diamond necklace have in common?

Crazy people!

That's Professor Pamela Whitherspoons' assessment when she is thrown into the world of cat shows, an eccentric owner and the filthy rich that got nothing else better to do. And all she wanted to do was visit her sister in Los Angeles to catch some rays.

Come see this case of a kidnapped show cat, through the eyes of reluctant amateur detective Pamela Whitherspoon, as she's tossed in a world where a Prize Persian has an entourage larger than a rap star, and a throng of adoring fans, that is quite disturbing.

With the help of her sarcastic favorite nephew and later, a very handsome cop, Pamela tries to solve what the media is calling the Pet Crime of the Century.

Can she solve it in time to finish her summer vacation and move on with her life? Or after a insidious "accident", is her life more in danger than she realizes?
