A physician tells me that I am not pregnant, and schedules me for surgery. Jesus appears to me in a dream and says, "You are pregnant, and if you have this surgery, both you and the baby will die. He tells me what to name my boy. I go to another doctor, tell him my dream, and he does an ultrasound. I am two months pregnant. I believe the dream saved my baby's life. The book tells of other warnings that family members and I have received.
