Let me ask you, do you feel stressed by what you already have? Do you feel pressure to continue working hard to maintain your lifestyle even when you actually don't need all the stuff you tend to buy ?

I know for me, this has been the case until I discovered the concept of minimalism. Taking a minimalist approach has changed my life in so many positive ways. I'm much happier, I feel way less stressed and I feel more immune to the garbage we often see on television and movies about what happiness is supposed to mean. This is a book so many of us need and I wish that I would have read something similar years ago.

This book will take you through the world of minimalism where less is more. You will learn how you can move from the consumer mind-set you to a new path where what really matters is genuine happiness, deep joy and the relationships you have with others.
