STRENGTHS-BASED GENERALIST PRACTICE: A COLLABORATIVE APPROACH, Third Edition, presents an introductory model of generalist practice that helps you master core practice skills, learn to build trust in the helping relationship, and empower disadvantaged clients. The book integrates empirical practice methods with a strengths-based approach to micro and macro generalist practice. Written in a clear style that you can understand, the book includes fascinating and useful case examples, and chapters on special populations authored and contributed by experts in the area covered.
