Sense and Sensibility jane Austen

The first published novel of Jane Austen tells the tale of the Dashwood sisters, Elinor and Marianne , in a comedy of manners describing their adventure at the home of a distant relative. Typical of her later novels, she interlocks themes of love and heartbreak and transforms those themes into a memorable piece of fiction. Austen paid for the first printing of the book which quickly sold out the 750 copies. It has been adapted into several films and productions and is a must read for Austen lovers.
